

The Premier Spa Business Resource

DAYS SPA[®]

April 2009 dayspamagazine.com $5.00

EMBRACE EARTH MONTH

Mud Bars

Tea Trends

Water As Art

Mineral Makeup

PLUS

Teen Skin Care

Epicurean Spa Cuisine

Test Your Coaching Skills

Product Premiere | MUST HAVE

Celebrate Earth Day with a bounty of new spa items.

1. Thalgo Comfort Cleansing Range. Red algae and date extract energize cells and restore moisture in this line. It includes Cocooning Cleansing Milk, Cocooning Tonic Lotion and Softness Exfoliator. 866.GO.THALGO, thalgo.com

4. M'lis Vitamin D Softgels. Give your clients a dose of internal sunshine with these dietary supplements. 800.548.0569, mliscompany.com

2. G.M. Collin Retinol Advanced + Matrixyl + Q10. Clients can use this cream every night to reduce the signs of aging and refresh the skin. 800.341.1531, gmcollin.com

3. Essie Cosmetics Spring 2009 Color Collection. Flawless and Mesmerize are two of the six shades in this bright assortment of nail enamels. 800.232.1155, essie.com

5. Wine Country Naturals Cabernet Plum-Essence Salt Scrub. This new formula combines grape extract and mineral sea salts for a sweet-smelling slough. 415.475.5155, winecountrynaturals.com

6. Jane Iredale Zap&Hide Blemish Concealer. Treat acne with the antiseptic and anti-inflammatory properties of tea tree leaf and lavender oils on one end of this makeup stick. Then, flip it over to camouflage blemishes altogether. 800.762.1132, janeiredale.com

7. Aveda Light the Way Lavender Candle. In honor of Earth Month, all proceeds from this limited-edition scented candle—powered by lavender from the Diois region of France—will go toward protecting clean water sources through the Global Greengrants Fund. 800.328.0849, aveda.com

Reproduced with permission from DAYS PA magazine. ©2009 by Creative Age Publications. All rights reserved.

